OREGON LAW REGARDING PATIENT CHOICE AND NOTIFICATION

In accordance with the above Oregon statute, you agree that you have been made aware of the following:

1. The patient has a choice when referred to the facility for a diagnostic test, health care treatment, or service at a facility other than the one recommended by the health care practitioner.
2. If the patient chooses to have the diagnostic test, healthcare treatment, or service different from the one recommended by the health care practitioner, the patient is responsible for determining the extent of coverage or the limitation on coverage for the diagnostic test, healthcare treatment or service at the facility chosen by the patient.
3. The health care practitioner shall not deny, limit, or withdraw referral solely because the patient chooses to have the diagnostic test, health care treatment, or service at a facility other than the one recommended by the health care practitioner.
